WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: The weekend of October 21st we will join Catholic parishes all over the world in celebrating World Mission Sunday. We act in solidarity this day, as we pray and share our gifts to help build-up the church around the world where the witness of Christ and support of the poor is still needed most. Envelopes are available in your monthly packets or can be found as part of the special mission insert in the October 19th edition of the Visitor. All funds collected on World Mission Sunday support the pastoral, catechetical, charitable and evangelizing work of the Church in over 1,150 of the most in-need diocese in 180 countries through the efforts of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, a Pontifical Mission Society directed by Pope Francis and administered by the local St. Cloud Mission Office. Please plan to give generously.

PRAY FOR THESE PEOPLE of the parish and community who have asked for our prayers: Steven Whalen, Allen Kuhn, Walter White, Barb Huckenpoehler, Mary Ann Bechtold, Nancy Stang, Mary Baker, Julie Anderson, Kathy Wholman, John Decker, Ed Ougel and Madison Brown. Also pray for the women and men serving in the armed forces. Your contact persons are 236-7947, 398-7525 (also the prayer line) or the parish office 398-2211.

CHAPLETS!! If you would like to learn how to make chaplets, please join The Women's Group on Tuesday, October 23rd at 9:00 a.m. in Room 103 at St. Anne's Church. We will be using these again this year during Lent and have many to make. Join us if you can. We would appreciate the help.

SUNDAY MORNING MASS TIME CHANGE: Starting Sunday, November 4th, St. Anne's Mass time will change to 8:00 a.m. and St. Nicholas to 10:00 a.m. Saturday evening Masses remain the same.

--- RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ---

Our Religious Ed. program is into its second month and things are going well. Thank you to all of our families who make the commitment to bring your children and teens on Sunday mornings. And thank you to the many volunteers who make the classes possible. Other parish members, please pray for our youngest church members, their families, and our program volunteers, that together we build the Kingdom of God.

Our next class is on Oct. 28, followed by another class one week later on November 4. During the class on November 4, we will hold Safe Environment Training for students in grades K – 8. If parents do not want their student to receive this training, please send a written notice to the office by Oct. 31. All parents are welcome to join their students for the training.

Students in grades 6, 7 & 8 are bringing home information from class today about special events they can participate in during this RE year. Parents, please read the information, discuss it with your son or daughter and decide which of the 3 events they want to attend. The first event is a "fun fest" on Friday, Oct. 26 in Sartell. Anyone wanting to participate in this event will need to contact Betty Nystrom by Friday, Oct. 19.

JOIN PARISHIONERS IN PRAYER: Some of St. Anne's parishioners wanted to do something, as Catholics in our parish, to ask for heavenly help because of the recent scandals and upheaval in the Church. Join together in the front pews immediately after the last song, kneel and pray the St. Michael the Archangel prayer out loud together. It won't take more than 2 minutes.

GOSPEL CONNECTION: 28th Sunday of the Year

Jesus, looking at the rich young man, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Mark 10: 17-30

"Treasure in heaven" doesn't come cheap . . .

A couple came before Jesus: "Good teacher, we have raised two beautiful children. We cared for them, taught them and loved them through all the twists and turns of childhood. We got them through college and they are now on their own. What must we do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus looked at the couple and loved them. He said to them, "Go, use your new freedom to help other families struggling with all the issues you struggled with. Be a source of wisdom and guidance for them as they raise their families. Then come, follow me."

And the couple's faces fell, because their flight to the Bahamas was beginning to board.

The CEO of a large corporation came before Jesus: "Good teacher, my company employs hundreds of people. We conduct our business honestly and ethically. We meticulously keep every employment, safety and environmental regulation - even though it costs us a lot of money. What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus looked at the CEO and loved him. He said to him, "Go, redirect the greater share of your profits to providing for your employees. Take the lead in the responsible care of the environment by businesses like yours. Make your company a model of ethical advertising and consumer protection. Then come, follow me."

The CEO's face fell, because he knew this would never fly with his board.

A politician came before Jesus: "Good teacher, I serve my district 24-7. I listen to the voters and act in their best interests. I've been a dependable and consistent vote for policies and programs that will guarantee the future of our city and state. What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus looked at the politician and loved him. He said to him, "Go, support an initiative that will be unpopular with your voters, that may cost you your office, but will benefit the poor, the powerless, the vulnerable. Then come, follow me."

And the politician's face fell, because it was an election year.

A teenager came before Jesus: "Good teacher, I study hard in school. I get good grades. I have a part-time job after school. I'm on the basketball team and play in the band. I try to be a good daughter and sister. I'm working hard to get into a good college. What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus looked at the teen and loved her. "Go, befriend the student in your school who is alone.

Give your mom and dad a break by taking on some responsibility around the house. Give time to a charitable work of your church or community service agency. Then come, follow me."

And the teenager's face fell, because her schedule was full.

We know how the rich young man feels in today's Gospel. Yes, Jesus asks everything of us as the cost of being his disciple - but Jesus asks of us only what we have, not what we don't have. Each one of us possesses talents and resources, skills and assets that we have been given by God for the work of making the kingdom of God a reality here and now. Authentic discipleship demands more than token contributions and the rote following of rituals and traditions; our baptism into the life of Christ compels us to focus every dimension of our lives on the things of God. To be the disciple of Christ we seek to become means a reordering of our priorities, a restructuring of our days to make time for the things of God. May we return to God the gifts he has given us in order to embrace eternity in the time to come.
