JOIN PARISIONERS IN PRAYER: Some of St. Anne's parishioners wanted to do something, as Catholics in our parish, to ask for heavenly help because of the recent scandals and upheaval in the Church. Join together in the front pews immediately after the last song, kneel and pray the St. Michael the Archangel prayer out loud together. It won't take more than 2 minutes.

PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY RALLY: I want to invite you to join us in offering reparation for the sins and offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to fervently pray for conversion of the United States. This Rally will be held Saturday, October 13th at 12:00 noon at the home of Walt and Audrey White, just north of the Kimball Post Office. Bring a chair if you need to sit. Rosaries are available. Thank you and God Bless you. Sincerely, Audrey White.

“ASK FATHER STATZ”

Question: Why do you wear a cassock? Is there a special reason for this?

Answer: Just as in a previous question as to why I want to be called Father Statz is because that was my father’s request. This time it is my mother’s request. She asked me when I came home on vacation from Venezuela that if I came back would I wear a cassock as a priest and she would buy it. You don’t turn down your mother’s request.

GOSPEL CONNECTION: 27th Sunday of the Year
The heart that fixes and mends

An adult - now a spouse and parent himself - remembers his mom and dad:

"I grew up in the '50s with very practical parents. A mother, God love her, who washed aluminum foil after she cooked in it, then reused it. She was the original recycle queen, before they had a name for it. My father was happier getting old shoes fixed than buying new ones. Their marriage was good, their dreams focused. Their best friends lived barely a wave away. I can see them now: Dad in trousers, tee shirt and a hat, with screwdrivers and wrenches going from one project to the next; and Mom in a house dress, a dish towel or some cooking utensil always in her hand.

"It was the time for fixing things. A curtain rod, the kitchen radio, the screen door, the oven door, the hem of a dress. Things we keep. It was a way of life, and sometimes it made me crazy. All that re-fixing, re-heating, renewing, I wanted just once to be wasteful. Waste meant affluence. Throwing things away meant you knew there'd always be more.

"But then my mother died, and on that clear summer's night, in the warmth of the hospital room, I was struck with the pain of learning that sometimes there isn't any more. Sometimes, what we care about most gets all used up and goes away . . . never to return. So, while we have it . . . it's best we love it . . . and care for it . . . and fix it when it's broken . . . and heal it when it's sick.

"This is true for marriage . . . and old cars . . . and children with bad report cards . . . and dogs with bad hips . . . and aging parents . . . and grandparents. We keep them because they are worth it, because we are worth it."

[Author unknown; adapted from Inspiration Peak.]

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of marriage as the joining of two hearts into one by God, a single heart that loves, that lifts up, that mends other broken hearts - including, when necessary, each other's. That is the mystery and wonder of the marriage covenant. A couple's life together and their generous response to the vocation of parenthood model the unfathomable and profound love of God. Marriage demands not perfection but commitment; it requires the hard work of patience, understanding and humility; despite disappointment and failed expectations, marriage centered in the love of God always moves beyond "hardness of heart" to embrace a spirit of generosity and selflessness. In the life a couple creates together, Christ is the ever-present Wedding Guest, who makes a couple's simple, everyday life together a miraculous sacrament in which the love of God is revealed to all.
